

Quick fix

Butch Flammang – 27 September 2016

We were coming home and I was leaking oil in a steady stream. We stopped at a gas station on the corner by Brown's Pub. We tried to figure out how to fix it. John Cali decided to get a screw out of the building and screwed it up into the oil pan. It stopped the leak and we got home.

It was noted that the building did not fall down.